Purchase of computers by Kendriya Bhandar

992. SHRI R.K. ANAND: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Kendriya Bhandar is still purchasing computers, HP cartridges and other branded items at higher prices from retailers instead of manufacturers and authorized distributors in contravention of the revised purchase policy-2003; and †Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) if so, whether the matter has been investigated and what action has been taken against the persons responsible for violating the purchase policy and to find the vested interest?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) and (b) The Purchase Policy of Kendriya Bhandar provides that products will be procured from manufacturers and where the manufacturers express their inability for direct marketing, that purchases be made from their authorized distributors/agencies. As per information received from Kendriya Bhandar, M/s Hewlett Packard do not undertake direct selling of cartridges. They have appointed their national distributors and apart from that, M/s HP India also appoints their RSR (Registered Supplies Reseller). As per M/s Hewlett Packard business model, even their national distributors are not permitted to undertake the direct selling to customer and they only sell/supply to their RSRs. It is the RSRs, who make the payments to the national distributors, maintain inventory and do the marketing. Kendriya Bhandar have therefore entered into a tripartite agreement with M/s Hewlett Packard and their RSRs duly appointed/authorized by them.
